General Price List

These prices are effective April 16, 2024 and are subject to change without notice.

The goods and services shown are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only those items that you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

This list does not include prices for certain items that you may ask us to purchase for you, such as cemetery services, flowers and newspaper notices. The price for those items will be shown on your contract describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Prior to drafting any contract for funeral goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any pre-need agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the decedent.

Basic Administration & Primary Services$1940

This is a basic fee that we charge every family for our professional expertise in assisting them with their preferences. It includes a proportionate share of the taxes, licenses, maintenance, insurance and other business expenses required to serve the public on a twenty-four hour basis. Our charge includes but is not limited to: consultation with the family, administrative and clerical service, preparation of the death certificate for certification by the attending physician or coroner, consultation with the cemetery, crematory or common carrier, assistance with union or insurance papers, and the writing and submitting of obituary and service notices to newspapers you select. (A proportionate share of this fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, direct burials and forwarding or receiving of remains.)
