

GENERAL PRICE LIST

These prices are effective as of May 28, 2024

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing in the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

This list does not include prices for certain items that you may ask us to buy for you, such as cemetery services, flowers, and newspaper notices. The prices for those items will be shown on your bill or the statement describing the funeral goods and services you selected. We charge you for our services in buying these items except where prohibited by State Law. Discloser Notice for funeral services agreement A.R.S. 32-1373 (B)

This establishment offers for sale caskets and outer burial container, which may be purchased and used, at your option, in connection with the funeral services and final disposition of human remains however, except for State Health requirements (A.R.S. 36-136). The purchase or use of our caskets or outer burial containers is not required by law.

Professional Services

Services of Funeral Director and Staff $749.00

Our charge includes arrangement of funeral and consultation with family and clergy, coordination with cemetery, crematory and/or other parties involved in the final disposition; securing, preparation and filing of necessary notices, authorizations and consent including death certificates; assistance with government and other claim forms, as needed. This fee for our services will be added to the total cost of the funeral services you select. Such a fee is already included in our charges for direct cremation, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.

Embalming $295.00

Except in certain special cases, law does not require embalming. Embalming may be necessary however, if you select certain funeral arrangements such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as a direct cremation or immediate burial. If you selected a funeral which requires embalming, such as a funeral with a viewing, you may have to pay for the embalming. You do not have to pay for embalming you did not approve if you selected arrangements such as a direct cremation or immediate burial. If we charge for embalming, we will explain why in writing.
